ABSTRACT

HEADING in capital, bold face font and center 11- point

A short abstract (not more than 250 word) in a single paragraph should be included here. An Abstract summarizes the major aspects of a paper. It is usually one paragraph long, and should succinctly summarize the purpose of the paper, the methods used, the major results, and the author's impretations and conclusions (see MJLI Structured Abstract).

Purpose – Reason/aims of paper. State the background of the study

Methodology – Methodology/"how it was done"/scope of study. State the selection and numbers of participant. State the design and procedures used, including the intervention or experimental manipulations and the primary outcome measures

Findings – State the main results of the study. Numerical data may be included but should be kept to a minimum. State the conclusions that can be drawn from the data provided and their implications (if appropriate)- impact on society.

Significance – Who would benefit from this and what is new about it?

Keywords: list up not more than 7 key words.
